Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Detailed Action

The amendment filed on 11-7-2006 has been entered. Upon further consideration, the allowable subject matter of claims 10, 15, 20 and 24 has been withdrawn. Any inconvenience to the Applicant is regretted.

Claims Rejection - 35 U.S.C. 102(b)

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 8, 9, 11, 13, 15, 20 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chen (U.S. Patent No. 6,134,788).

Chen shows a knife comprising a handle (100) including a first side (20) and a second side (10); a blade (80) configured to rotate about a pivot point between an open position (Fig.8) and a closed position (Fig.10) and having a tang (see Fig.6) with an inlet including a slot (82) terminating in a receptacle (81), the blade (80) being removably secured to the handle (100); a manually-releasable fastening device (50,60) disposed about the pivot point (see Fig.6) and adapted to releasably engage the handle (100) and the blade (80) such that, while the fastening device (50,60) is released, the blade (80) is removable from the handle (100) and the first side (20) is separable from, and rotatable relative to, the second side (10) as claimed. Further, the fastening device includes a knob (60) and a retention post (50). The inlet (81,82) of the blade (80) is adapted to engage the retention post (50), and the first and second sides (20,10) include a connector (21,14) as claimed.

Claims Rejection - 35 U.S.C. 103(a)

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chen (U.S. Patent No. 6,134,788) in view of Wonderley (U.S. Patent No. 6,026,575).

Chen's knife as set forth shows all the claimed structure except the knob (60) lacks friction grips.

Wonderley teaches providing a knob (110) with friction grips (112) to facilitate manipulating of the knob.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time this invention was made to modify Chen by providing the knob (60) with friction grips as taught by Wonderley for the reason set forth.

Indication of Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 14, 22, 23, 25 and 26 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
2. Claim 19 is allowed.
